PECULIAR OUTCOME

Of Two Arrests by the Police Early Yesterday Morning.

A MAN SENT TO JAIL FOR BIGAMY

After Being Arrested for a Trivial Offense—Two Wives Confront Him, but Neither Seems Desirous of Prosecuting Him—An Echo of the Martin's Ferry Robbery—Various Other Criminal Matters.

Rather a peculiar case developed in the police court yesterday. Harry Temple Griffith, a scenic painter who has been doing some work at the Martin's Ferry opera house, and Robert Doolin, a man who plays the piano in a saloon in that town, were arraigned on the charge of loitering in a house of ill fame. They were fined $5 and costs each. Griffith paid, while Doolin did not have the money and went to the workhouse for thirty days. Several friends, here and at Martin's Ferry, made efforts to get him out, but at a late hour last night he was still a prisoner.

The arrests came about in this wise: Doolin was arrested at Martin's Ferry Monday night on suspicion of having a hand in the Schoer robbery, but proved an alibi and was discharged. Another man was suspected to have been an accessory, and Doolin and Griffith were seen spending money freely here. The latter was mistaken for the suspected man, and the two were shadowed until they went to Rhoe Gray's house, when Officer Scalley "pinched" them.

In searching the men at headquarters, Lieut. Gans found on him papers which showed that he was a scenic painter named Griffith or Temple, and that he had married a young woman named Coffey, at Lenoir, S. C., in December.

Sunday last a blonde young woman, rather good looking, appeared at the police office and said her husband, Harry Temple, had taken all the money she had, $100, and left her at the Hotel Bohler without means to pay her board. The lieutenant recalled this, and detaining the prisoner, sent for Mrs. Temple. She remonstrated with her husband very mildly when she saw him, and he admitted that she was his wife and patched up a peace with her. After police court yesterday he sent to Martin's Ferry and got money enough on his contract there to pay his wife's board and settle some other debts, and he was then let go, and returned to Martin's Ferry.

Later in the day it developed that Griffith was living with another woman at Martin's Ferry, whom he represented as his wife, and who has a child nearly a year old. Inquiry showed that this woman was from Sullivan, Ind., and that her maiden name was Peterson, and she was married to Griffith about two years ago.

The second wife was reluctant to swear out a warrant for him, saying she did not want to cause him any trouble, but she finally did so in Squire Gillespy's court. The Martin's Ferry officers arrested him and he was brought over by Lieutenant Terrill, making no demand for a requisition. The first wife also came over.

Griffith was locked up to await a hearing at 10 a. m. to-day. Neither of his wives seems willing to prosecute him.

He took his arrest very lightly. He says his right name is Griffith and that the North Carolina wife is the only wife he ever had, but the other woman is his "best girl."

"Temple," or Griffith, located in Martin's Ferry about two years ago, and has been doing a land office business. He is a painter of opera house scenery, and is one of the best in the country, and has been busy for weeks on a large order for New York parties, the cost of which is said to be something like $8,000.

Temple came from Indiana and has for some time been keeping house on Third street. The first year he was in Martin's Ferry he and his wife boarded at the Hotel St. Clair. Mr. Temple seemed very devoted to his wife and child, and Mrs. Temple, who seems to be an excellent woman, has made many friends in Martin's Ferry. She is of medium height, about twenty-five years old and good looking.

In Squire Gillespy's Court. The case of James Mix, accused of breaking into and robbing Hannan Bros' cigar store, was yesterday postponed until to-day.

Susan Mulvey, in jail on a charge of abortion, furnished bond yesterday and was released. The Italian, Gregar, charged with robbing a Syrian at Nicolai Boscia's boarding house of $12.50, was discharged for lack of evidence against him.

Wanted to Drown Himself.

Last night Officer Scalley hauled a stranger in in the patrol wagon from the corner of Fourteenth and Water streets, and lodged a charge of drunk against him. He had waded out in the creek and tried to drown himself. The watchman at the Pan-Handle freight depot saw him and pulled him out, after which Scalley pulled him in.

Taken from a Bad House.

Yesterday complaint was made at police headquarters that a girl named Rhoe was in Madeline Hornbrook's house, on the corner of East and Nineteenth streets, and would not go to her home at Martin's Ferry. Officer Buch went down and brought her to the office, and later she agreed to go home with a friend who lives in East Wheeling.

Monksville Miners Resume.

On Saturday last the Monksville Coal Company posted a list of seventy names of miners who could go to work on Monday, and after to-day all those of that list who did not resume their old places would be considered discharged and the places filled. But the entire number of men were on hand and went to work. Others will be put on as the trade demands. The Ohio scale is the one they are working on. No further trouble is anticipated now.

Sets for "The Devil's Auction."

A noted dramatic critic in writing of Charles H. Yale's newest Devil's Auction states most aptly: "There is not a dull moment in the entire performance nor can it be said that there is an old or hackneyed thing in it, but it is all new, bright and above all thoroughly entertaining." This piece will be seen at the Opera House Saturday afternoon and evening. The sale of seats will open at C. A. House's music store this morning.

No other medicine has equalled Hood's Sarsaparilla in the relief it gives in severe cases of dyspepsia, sick headache, etc.

Hundreds of people are inquiring how to get the excellent World's Fair Art Portfolio, issued by the INTELLIGENCER. See next Monday's issue for this opportunity.
